

EMBO Laboratory Leadership (3-days) course

EMBO Lab Leadership Courses

In-person course

Practical information:

The course is limited to 16 participants. Participation depends not only on the order of registration, but also on having as many research groups as possible represented at the training. A waiting list will be drawn up if more than 16 applications are received.

Confirmation:

The selection process will start after the official registration deadline for the course has passed. All applicants (accepted, waitlisted) will be notified as soon as possible (approximately 1 week after the registration deadline.)

Payment:

The training will be free of charge, but the course holds a value of approximately €1600 per participant. You are kindly asked to consider your participation carefully and commit to the course once selected

Course timing: 28-30 January 2025

Registration deadline: 15 November 2024
